CLUBDOM

To PRESENT HISTORIC DRAMA

The participants are in readiness for the first presentation of the historic pageant-drama, "The Path of Progress," on Saturday evening at the Tristiate fairgrounds. The pageant, showing the progress of the country since the landing of the Pilgrims in 1620, was specially written for the occasion by the well-known author, Mrs. Annah Robinson Watson, and the participants have been carefully trained under the personal direction of Miss Frederica Magnus. The drama will be beautifully staged, with artistic lighting effects and handsome and correct costuming, this feature having been under the supervision of Mr. Harrison Crofford. Miss Magnus and her two able assistants, Mrs. Loille Yahnke Buchanan and Miss Bianche Pence, have neen the lustest people in Memphis for the past two weeks, for upon them has fallen the burden of the work of preparation for the occasion. They have had the assistance of some of the most talented young people of the city in training the various groups of characters for the pag-TO PRESENT HISTORIC DRAMA
